EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT – CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

This Representation Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Patricia and Ramon Ocon ("Client" or "you") and Aiken & Aiken, LLC ("Attorney" or "we"). You are retaining the firm Aiken & Aiken, LLC and not one individual attorney. We will provide the legal services described below on these terms:

1. FEES. We will provide the legal services described below for $1200.00. This amount does not include the filing fee charged by the Court of $335.00, nor does it include the credit counseling fee or the financial management course fee, which must be paid directly to the counseling agency. A credit report is required and, if the Attorney must obtain the credit report, the fee for the same is $75.00.

The flat fee listed above is based on the facts as you have described them in our initial meeting. If the complexity of the issues regarding your situation was unclear or understated or, if after review of the questionnaire and your documentation, we determine that your case is more complex than expected or the questionnaire and/or documentation is substantially incomplete, then we are not bound by the flat fee mentioned above. You agree that we will not be obligated to file the case until we are satisfied that the information is substantially complete and any additional fees have been paid. You understand that your case must be filed within sixty (60) days of the first petition preparation by the Attorney or additional attorney fees may be charged. PLEASE BE ADVISED that if you want your case filed on an expedited or emergency basis there will be an additional charge of $500.00.

The retainer funds will be treated as an advance payment, allowing the Attorney to take the retainer into income immediately and the funds will NOT be placed in the Attorney's trust account. If for any reason, you decide not to file bankruptcy after retaining services but before the petition is filed, we will be entitled to keep all retainer funds paid as of the termination date as payment in full for the services rendered to date.

You may pay the fee in installment payments of no more than six (6) months, as detailed in the Attorney Fee Installment Schedule (Attachment A). All installment payments are due 30 days after the prior payment. We will have no obligation to file the petition until all of the fees are paid in full. Any fee paid less than seven (7) days before the filing of your petition must be paid in cash, cashier's check or money order. The legal services fee does not include any costs we incur on your behalf. PLEASE BE ADVISED that there is a $50.00 service charge for all returned checks.

If, after an initial, detailed financial analysis is completed, it is not possible or desirable for the Client to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case and a Chapter 13 bankruptcy case must be filed, a new retainer agreement must be executed and all amounts paid under this agreement will be applied to the attorney fees and costs for a Chapter 13 case.

2. SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION.

Included Services: This agreement covers services rendered after our initial phone consultation, including the analysis of your financial condition, the forms of bankruptcy available to you, the scope of the relief you may obtain, the preparation and filing of a petition and schedules and claims of exemptions with the bankruptcy court, preparation of the certificate of financial management course) attendance at the initial Section 341 meeting of creditors, and review of reaffirmation agreements for secured debts.

Services Not Included: The flat fee provided in this agreement does not include our services in connection with requests for production of documents by the Chapter 7 Trustee or any other party whenever requested; appearances at, or preparation for Rule 2004 examinations; representation related to disputes or objections to claims of exemption; relief from stay; objections to discharge and dischargeability of debts; avoidance of liens; discharge and/or release of tax liens; governmental audits; request for turnover matters; amendments of any schedules (including the addition of creditors); appeal of any decision; re-opening a closed case (for any reason); nor any services after the closing of your case. We are not engaged to represent you in any litigation now pending or filed hereafter outside the bankruptcy court. Any representation for services not included in this agreement would require a separate retainer agreement and attorney fee.

PLEASE BE ADVISED that representation by the Attorney is limited solely and exclusively to your bankruptcy case and does not include any other legal matters of any nature, including but not limited to: foreclosure defense, home loan modification, debt negotiation, and judgment actions by creditors. If you desire representation in any other matter, a separate fee agreement must be executed.

Billing Terms: Representation for matters not covered by the flat fee will be either: (i) $250.00 per hour for attorneys; $125 per hour for paralegal; and $75 for legal assistant or (ii) a flat fee that is mutually agreed upon by Client and Attorney in writing.

You agree to pay for any and all of the above mentioned services at the time we request payment, unless other arrangements have been agreed to by Client and Attorney in writing. You agree to pay our costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in the course of collection, should you fail to pay as agreed.

3. COSTS. In addition to the flat fee described above, you also agree to pay all out-of-pocket costs incurred by Attorney in the course of this representation, including but not limited to: copying, postage, long distance telephone charges, fax charges, courier, overnight delivery, title reports, transportation costs including mileage and any other costs that are necessary in the opinion of the Attorney to accomplish the purposes of the representation. You will pay directly the costs of the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling and the post-filing financial management class that is required to receive a bankruptcy discharge. If you do not complete this the post-financial management course in a timely manner, it is possible that your case will be closed without a discharge and you will have to petition the Court to have your case re-opened, incurring an additional court filing fee plus additional attorney fees.

REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT – CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

4. ADDITIONAL/INCREASED ATTORNEY FEES. The flat fee listed above is based on the facts as you have described them in our initial consultation. Any of the following may trigger an increase in the fees in your case:

- A delay of more than seven (7) months between signing this Agreement and providing your fully completed questionnaire and requested documentation;
- A delay of more than sixty (60) days between providing your completed questionnaire and documentation and the signing of your bankruptcy petition;
- Failure to provide all of the requested information in a timely fashion;
- Our determination that your case is more complex than originally thought;
- Intervening events which change the issues, timing or players in your case;
- Additional court appearances.

In such an event, we will notify you that this paragraph applies and we will have no obligation to file your petition until any additional fees are paid.

5. AMENDMENTS. Bankruptcy law requires that you file amended schedules if, within six (6) months of the bankruptcy filing, you acquire or become entitled to an inheritance, marital property settlement, life insurance or death benefit. You agree to contact us within seven (7) days of learning that you may be entitled to receive any of these kinds of property.

You are also required to file amended schedules if the originally filed schedules were incorrect or inaccurate in any way. You agree to contact us within seven (7) days of discovering that your original schedules were in any way inaccurate or incomplete.

6. COSTS FOR AMENDMENTS. You agree that in the event that documents filed with the court require amending due to your failure to provide adequate or necessary information, you will pay an additional flat legal fee of $500.00 for amending your petition.

7. CONDITIONS. This Agreement will not take effect, and we will have no obligation to provide legal services, until this Agreement has been executed by both you and us and have paid the retainer as detailed above.

8. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES. The ultimate responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the bankruptcy schedules and the list of creditors rests with you. Attorney will attempt to assist you in locating and listing your creditors and their current addresses but you sign the schedules under penalty of perjury and you agree to carefully review them prior to signing. Further, you understand that we will rely on the information supplied by you about your assets and liabilities to advise you. Failure to be both truthful and thorough my limit the relief you obtain by the bankruptcy filing. It is essential that you read carefully and respond timely to each and every communication from us. You understand that bankruptcy will remain on your credit reports for a period of up to ten (10) years. You understand that upon the filing of the bankruptcy petition, all of your open credit card accounts, even those with a zero balance, will likely be closed by the credit grantor. You understand that bankruptcy law allows utility companies to require a deposit for continued service. You also acknowledge that it is NOT permissible to incur new unsecured debt after meeting with an attorney but before filing for bankruptcy. To incur new debt within ninety (90) days of filing for protection under Chapter 7 is presumed to be fraud and may result in a finding by the Court that that debt is not dischargeable.

You understand that upon filing a petition in bankruptcy, all of your property becomes property of the bankruptcy estate and, unless exempt, may be administered/sold by the trustee in order to benefit your creditors. Further, if you are operating a business, the trustee may demand that you cease operations of that business immediately while the bankruptcy case is pending. The trustee may sell any and all interests you may have in any business, if the interest is not exempt. You understand that you have a duty to cooperate with the trustee and there is no absolute right for you to dismiss your Chapter 7 bankruptcy case once it has been filed.

You understand and agree to co-operate fully with the Attorneys in providing all information requested. Any failure on your part to co-operate with the Attorneys gives cause for the Attorneys to withdraw from representation. Additionally, if there is no activity on your file for ninety (90) days, you understand that your file will be closed.

9. CLIENT FILES. We will keep your file in an electronic format only, either in the Attorney's office or in off-site storage, after the conclusion of the matter to which the files relate for the length of time required by the current laws/professional standards in place. You understand that you will receive copies of all documents related to your file and should retain these documents. If you require additional copies of your file you understand that you may be charged for such copies.
10. NO GUARANTEES. You understand and agree that we make no guarantees as to the discharge of any particular debt. You specifically acknowledge that priority debts including recent taxes, domestic support obligations, secured debts, taxes for years for which no return was filed or for which a return was filed within two (2) years of the bankruptcy filing, most debts arising out of divorce, and student loans are not dischargeable in a Chapter 7 case.
11. SEVERABILITY. If any part of this agreement is deemed invalid, illegal, or inoperative for any reason, it is the intention of the Client and the Attorney that the remaining parts, so far as possible and reasonable, shall be effective and fully operative.
12. JURISDICTION; MODIFICATION. This agreement is made in and shall be construed and governed under the laws of the State of Illinois and is effective when both the Attorney and the Client sign it. This agreement may only be modified by the written and fully executed agreement of the parties. This agreement is binding upon Client and Attorney and upon their respective successors, trustees, legatees, nominees, representatives, heirs and assigns.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
